NORTH KOREA'S COMING CHANGE

North Korea is driven by predictable cycles of isolation and aggression. They manipulate the world through these cycles which they have come to depend on and which they know will get them what they want. As long as they don't push too far they will always be successful in this carefully crafted game they play. Presently, they are considering a plan of action that will send their orchestrated cycle of isolation and aggression out of control.

A change is taking place in North Korea the world is leaving them behind and no longer has the patience, resources and time to calm their cyclic temper tantrums. The next leader of North Korea who succeeds Kim Jong will bring North Korea out of its isolated state, will study other world leaders, cultures and best practices and implement new policies and freedoms for its people.

INDIA MUST UNITE OR FALL DIVIDED UNDER GLOBAL CONTROL

Things have been in a state of chaos in India to some degree and unfortunately some of the past actions or more appropriately in-actions of the Prime Minister have helped to contribute to this. His second term will not be easy but he now has the fortitude and vision to do what must be done. He will make hasty assertive actions that many will not like but they are necessary. One of his biggest goals will be to unite India because a divided India cannot stand against the global powers which seek to control it.

CHINA: THE RISING POSTER CHILD FOR A ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT

In America in Prophecy 2009-2018 I wrote about how the Ultimate Plan will find a home in the Obama Administration here in America but at the same time China too will cave in to global pressures and submit to the Ultimate Plan. China will be placed in danger but as long as they stick to their policies, ethics and principles, they have the potential to overcome it; this is not likely due to greed. In the end they will unite and fall in line with plans of the global elite who seek to unify Asia into one and become a powerful force for a one world government. Imagine an Asian army millions strong!

PEOPLE OF CHAOS

Excerpt from the upcoming free eBook “Children of Chaos” by Sister Sharon

There are individuals who have become consumed by the powers of Chaos, and in their life they continuously run the course of destruction through their own sin and darkness. They have allowed negativity to take over their being through weakness and desires. These people take pleasure in destroying.

The people of Chaos are those who have submitted willingly to negative chaotic energy for their own personal gain. Whereas the spiritually minded follow truth the people of Chaos are lovers of lies because while truth may bring clarity and reality, lies bring confusion and illusions helping to fuel the fires of Chaos.

The people of Chaos are those who have submitted willingly to negative chaotic energy for their own personal gain. Whereas the spiritually minded seek peace and harmony within the Cosmos of God but the people of Chaos yearn for the destruction of all Creation if they cannot have whatever it is they desire. You will know them by their mission and agenda. The people of Chaos entertain thoughts of domination, power and greed of the earth's natural resources and so will not hesitate to build destructive weapons to destroy continents of people or hurt others to get what they want. These dark desires are harbored and nurtured over spans of years until they are consumed and pushed to the point of erratic action bringing on their destructive end. Whatever they must do to obtain the upper hand in the world, they will do and Chaos will feed them with negative energy, making them drunk off of their ecstatic rise to power. If the world should be destroyed in the process of their claiming domination, so be it. In their chaotic mind, life without power is useless anyway.

There is a great difference in those who live by the spirit and those who live by Chaos. One will survive this world while the other will not. The one of the Spirit will see God, while the one of Chaos will meet with eternal fire and damnation. Spirit gives the person immortality, peace and blessings. Chaos can only lead to ruin and death.

MOVING CLOSER TO GOD MY PERSONAL ADVICE

Part 1.

I have received many emails from individuals who desire to develop a closer relationship with God, this is commendable and something I would like to help you with. It is my desire that everyone develop a spiritually intimate relationship with God. I am going to be brief and to the point. What I present here is what I know to work not what I've read or heard others say.

Growing closer and intimate with God is a journey that will last you a lifetime and will develop with each new day for the rest of your life. This is your sacred journey, your journey to God. It will not happen over night and no book or lecture can give it to you, you have to earn it.

You cannot compare your spiritual journey with others many people lie about their experiences with God in order to impress others or make themselves seem important. Just because some miraculous supernatural occurrence has not happened to you does not mean God is not active in your life. These things are not evidence of closeness with God, when you are truly close to God you don't have to try and prove it to others the evidence will be seen in the life you live, the glow of the spirit on your face and in your smile, it will manifest in your actions and deeds towards others. Leave the tall tales and magic tricks for others and look for the small ways God moves in your life from day to day, once you can learn to identify these you will begin to see the bigger works of God not only in your life but others. Looking for God in your day to day experiences will help you to become more God conscious.

Closeness with God starts inward and works its way outwards. Jesus talked about the Pharisees whom he compared to dirty vessels, outwardly shining and clean but inward filled with filth. God is looking for clean vessels that He can pour His Holy Spirit into and serve to the nation as a drink of hope, you wouldn't drink out of dirty cup so don't expect God to drink from you if you are filled with filth. When I say filth I'm not just talking about stealing, lying, murder, adultery and the usual list of sins, I'm talking about all the little things we like to sweep under the rug such as our jealousy's and judgments against others, meanness towards others, bad tempers, excessive behaviors, addictions, hatred of self, insecurities and out of control emotions. The deeper you go within yourself to clean house and bring balance the closer you become to God and in alignment with His universe.

Please see the July edition of Prophecy Digest for more information on how to grow closer to God. In addition to the things presented here the pillar of intimacy with God is actual belief in God, love of God, frequent prayer, positive living and the study of God and His Creation.

Sacred Prayer Circle

The Sacred Prayer Ceremony held on May 24th was a success and a powerful gateway for the power of God. Your emails of requests and support have moved my spirit to further continue this endeavor formally as a Sacred Prayer Circle. The next time you pray remember the Sacred Prayer Circle and we in turn will remember you.

CALLING ALL PRAYER WARRIORS! PLEASE PRAY FOR SISTER SARAH

My name is Sarah, and I live in northern San Diego County in southern California. I have been saved since age 8, and have the gift of tongues since age 17 (although I don't flaunt it), and God also speaks to me and gives me words of knowledge and I know the potential of his power and provision. I have struggles now because of my health and my children's health. I have lupus and kidney failure for about 6 years now (I'm 41). I should be getting a kidney transplant soon. Please pray that it goes well and that I can tolerate the surgery and the many drugs I have to take. My boys are 11 and 13. It has been very hard as I am a single mom and their dad does not follow after God like he did at first. He is very wrapped up in the carnal world now, and it's hard for me to be around him as he brings a spirit that I do not like with him. My older son has Aspergers which is high-functioning autism. It has been mostly hard because the boys fight very much, all the time, and I feel like I live in a war zone sometimes. I know that boys are competitive and aggressive, but I don't want to have it rule our lives. Please pray for me to know what is best to bring peace to my home. I do not like the life I live here with them very much as I feel like there is so much strife and not enough of God. I also agree with you greatly as I read in your prophecy that now is the time to get SPIRITUALLY STRONG. I feel something coming, the civil unrest and the stress on the nation, I feel the need to be steadfast and spiritual-minded and pure and focused. I have been trying to teach these things to my boys, too. I am in a somewhat vulnerable position being alone with little resources and very dependent on the medical system to stay alive. I know God is my source, so I try to think about that, also. He has kept me alive well beyond what doctors could and restored me well beyond what medicine could do. I believe I am a miracle every day when I look back at how sick I have been and how much I can do now; it is truly a work of God.

LAST WORDS...

I am enjoying all of the emails of support that I have received. God bless all of you for supporting my ministry which is God's ministry. The love of God is flowing abundantly throughout the earth but sometimes we get side tracked by news headlines, it's important that we take time out to enjoy His beautiful creation and the gift of life that He gave us.

I am honored to be a servant of the Lord. I have seen my share of trials and tribulations and if I can use my gift of prophecy from God to help somebody, my living is not in vain. If you need prayer or personal prophecy please contact me at sistahsharon@gmail.com ALL THE GLORY BELONGS TO GOD!

May the Lord God of Heaven bless you and keep you during these uncertain days. May the Holy Spirit cover you and the Angels of God encamp around you each day of your life. Whatever it is you are going through right now as you read this I pray the power of God be with you and give you victory!
