The recent attack of the swine flu upon the North American continent in particular is not a natural occurrence in nature in fact it's origins can be traced to laboratories. Swine flu is a man made disease and its current attack has been carefully planned. There is much about this attack that the U.S. Government is not telling the public because at the root of the epidemic is corruption, secret deals and plans for domination. However, God will turn this whole tragedy around and will reveal to the public the truth. God has shown me that the current administration is being pushed into a corner and possibly will have to come out and tell the public the truth about who is behind the current swine flu attack. It's hard for them to do this because they will have to expose corrupt people and plans but it will also expose their own corruption. No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Luke 16:13 The current administration must make a decision whether to cave in to the demands of global elites who want to further bring our nation to it's knees or pursue the best interest of the people and tell the truth. In my book America in Prophecy 2009-2018 in the section for 2009 I wrote about how important the vows made on inauguration day are to the future of this nation. When the Presidential word went forth that it would protect this nation and act on the best interest of the people, evil sat in the shadows and planned how to test him at his word. The swine flu attack is not meant to decimate or really destroy our nation but merely a test by those who don't value the human life. The truth about this will eventually come out and people will be shocked that such evil minds could ever exist among us.

Quick Look at 2009

From the book *America in Prophecy 2009-2018

Winter 2009

Winter is a fascinating season because it represents life and death, calm and treachery. The old guard lies dormant and lifeless under the snows of former times, trampled on by the masses that are on their way to celebrate the emergence of the new guard. The words spoken during the official vows will go forward to accomplish a Will and return in the form of danger and difficulty. Yet it is not so much the words carefully orchestrated in vows that mean so much but the force which drives them, the state of the heart, and the intent of the mind. From the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. The question of the winter season is "What is in the leadership's heart?" Time will tell as it always does.

Update-As we all know there were masses of people who attended the inauguration of President Barack Obama, close to 2 million. He gave an excellent address along with his vows to basically look out for the best interest of the people, these words are proving difficult to fulfill as he surrounds himself from Wall Street.

Spring 2009

The March winds blow and no one knows which way it will go, all are at its mercy as it whirls out of control. So will be the affairs of man. America is cast into danger, God will not be mocked. The bull has been unleashed and no one can stop it. Prosperity will flee like a bird as dark times descend upon the nation. But this descent is in accordance with God's Divine Will, a natural event that must occur for prophecy to be fulfilled. What goes up must come down, this is a universal law that even America cannot escape. Broken vows, misguided masses and inexperienced leadership are all part of the bigger plan. Nothing can stop the descent of this season.

Update- This spring season has been like a uncontrollable charging bull with the stock markets rising and falling at will, jobless rates climbing upward regardless of how the government might try to sugar coat it and people are still falling into foreclosure despite the bailouts and incentives. America took a plunge for the worst during this spring season. Broken vows, misguided masses and inexperienced leadership sums up what is happening currently with the swine flu attack. Despite leaderships best efforts the nation fell further into decline.

Summer 2009

The sun rises high and closer to earth and casts its illuminating light upon America. Truth is revealed. This is the summer of shattered illusions as the masses begin to realize that leadership is not what they thought. Deals will be made in secret that will perpetuate the lingering danger which looms over America. The unbreakable bond between leadership and the masses grows stronger as both shares in a season ripe with anxiety, each anxiously looking to the other. Experienced persons will rise to the occasion to try and stop the bull. The people may or may not be privy to the deals made in secret but God see's all and will remember.

Fall 2009

Fall is the season of deep contemplation and this is exactly what leadership will do. Birth to the Big Idea will take place that will be proposed to all who will hear. But the masses will be in a state of contemplation as they weigh the mistakes made and the heavy price they will have to pay. Can there be faith in a broken image? Can there be trust in inexperience which as already brought danger?

TROUBLING NATIONS IN MY SPIRIT

For the last two weeks the nations of Mexico, Pakistan and Germany have been coming up in my spirit. God has not fully revealed why these nations are rising in my spirit but I will share with you what I have been shown. Mexico and Pakistan will share a similar path both will be given the cold shoulder by other nations and pretty much left on their own to handle the enormous problems they each face. They are both being squeezed into submission by an external force which seeks to control these nations. Something is preparing to happen in Germany that will catch the world by surprise as it battles its own rising goliath. It is very evident global forces are moving in on these countries.

HELL IS TRUTH SEEN TO LATE

"During the early 1900's there were a lot of self-proclaimed gods, saviors and divine pimps to come on the scene but none as bamboozling as the legendary Father Divine".

Ms. Jane Anonymous Doe was there front and center when Father Divine (Reverend General Jealous Divine) put a curse on New York judge Justice Lewis J. Smith and a few days later the judge fell dead. Smith died from a heart attack but Father Divine claimed he did it with his special powers, you see, Father Divine claimed to be God and his followers believed it. Ms. Jane Doe thought she was witnessing an extraordinary moment of powerful truth being enacted and so became a devout follower, giving all of her income to the Father Divine Empire, giving up her home to the empire to use for communal purposes, she even gave up her family because they were against Father Divine. After many years of sacrifice and faithful giving, reduced to nothing but a corner in a commune, the rags on her back, penniless, overlooked and undervalued by newcomers into the Father Divine movement she realized that she had been bamboozled. Hell is truth seen too late and it was too late for Ms. Doe because she had given her life's energy and all her resources to support a lie and was now dependent upon that lie for her daily bread and a roof over her head.

Follow a lie and you will die with that lie and in the end face the harsh cutting truth of that which you have become. The keyword here being "follow". Anytime you follow something you are putting yourself in jeopardy and danger of being taken for granted and this is why it's best to always find your "own" way instead of taking someone else's twisted word. You can't get back the time and money wasted following a crook. Father Divine died a long time ago and so did Ms. Doe but we still have copycats today who want to build up crowds of blind followers and megabuck religious empires. We have all kinds of spiritual guru's, self-proclaimed leaders, master teachers and leaders out here who prey on those trying to find the right path. Many of these people are no different than the fake hoodoo doctors of long ago who sold anything including dirt as a cure for poverty. Many people traveled miles upon miles to visit these so-called doctors, saved up hard earned and hard to come by money in hopes of receiving a magical cure only to be disappointed when all they received was bottle of cooking oil disguised as some mystical healing anointment. Hell is truth seen too late. Too late to get your money back.

In the coming years as God raises up His new crop of spiritual leaders, Satan will be busy raising up His own crop of counterfeit cult personalities whose vile actions will make Jim Jones look like an altar boy. Many people say what they will never do and Satan promptly tries them at their word, given the right circumstances and conditions even the most religious among us can fall into a cult. I cannot stress enough how important it is for people to develop their own personal one on one relationship with God. Never allow yourself to become dependent another human being for your spiritual growth. READ,READ,READ and READ to learn for yourself and whatever it is you can't understand on your own, ask the Holy Spirit to reveal it to you.
